SUGGESTED (only) SUPPLY LIST:

David Daniels Watercolor class

Bring any watercolor supplies that you already have. The following is a suggested list of materials. Feel free to go beyond the limits of this list, but in any case buy the highest quality product you can afford.

PAPER: Several sheets of D' Arches, 140lb or 300lb cold pressed .22" x 30".
Please, no spiral bound pads.

PALETTE: There are many commercially made palettes that work very well. I would recommend the "John Pike" or "Robert wood" palette. Make sure that your pallet has a large mixing area and numerous compartments to hold your paints.

PAINT: If at all possible use professional grade "tube" watercolors.

Winsor Red	Sap Green	Winsor Violet
Permanent rose	Viridian Green	Prussian Blue
Alizarin Crimson	Phthalo Blue	Magenta
New Gamboge	Cerulean Blue	Hookers Green
Winsor yellow	Cobalt Blue	Chinese white

BRUSHES: Three basic brushes are needed. A 1" Flat (wash Brush) and two round pointed brushes. Although the numbering of brushes is not standardized a number 6 and a number 10 should work well.

FRISKET: Liquid Frisket is used as a "Masking agent" It is available in many brands. I prefer a gray liquid frisket made by b "Pebeo"

SUNDRY: Sketchpad, pencil, masking tape, paper towels, tracing paper, graphite stick, various tools for applying frisket, such as a small squirt bottle, natural and cosmetic sponges, a few sheets of medium gray pastel or drawing paper.

We will be painting primarily from photographs and sketches. Bring with you a large assortment of photos and/or preliminary sketches containing subjects that are of interest to you; landscapes, still life, flowers, etc.

David R. Daniels Color Choices

I have incorporated the following tubes of Daniel Smith Watercolors into my palette. The paints are of high quality, lightfast, and competitively priced. The Daniel Smith Watercolors are available only through the Daniel Smith catalog, or by buying directly from the store in Seattle Washington. There are three colors that are not Daniel Smith, these are listed with the manufacturer in parentheses. Please understand that I am not requiring you to purchase the Daniel Smith paints. However after repeated requests for my exact choice of colors, I have provided the following list.

Daniel Smith
